

PLAYGROUND

B LA BANDA SG

SYNOPSIS

"Playground" is the third production of "La Banda, Street Groove", which once again aims to connect with the audience through gesture and movement in harmony with rhythm. In this exhilarating work, the performers will step into the shoes of boys and girls experiencing a day at school. Everyday actions will transform into the most unimaginable choreographies, emotions will find their rhythm, and many more situations with which both, young and old, can identify. The urban character that defines La Banda will also be present, influencing both the movement and the original music throughout the performance. Through physical theatre, body percussion, tap dance, and urban dances, we will recall school days, playground hours, classes that sparked imagination, and those that lulled it to sleep. In essence, "Playground" is a rhythmic and sensory journey back to childhood that will make you want to revisit those days. A story told through music and dance for the whole family to thoroughly enjoy.
